

The Coconino Sun

VOL. XVIII.

FLAGSTAFF, MAY 18, 1901.

No. 20

LOCAL BREVITIES.

School supplies of all kinds at Timerhoff's.

A line of fine writing tablets and paperies at Timerhoff's.

Summer excursions from Arizona to California points are announced by the railroads.

Remember the Racket Store for cheap Chinaware at cost for a short time only.

Governor Murphy has gone to San Francisco to witness the launching of the battleship Ohio.

Village school shoes for boys and girls. The best school shoe ever brought to Flagstaff are sold by the New York Store.

The commencement exercises of the Phoenix Indian school were held last week. There were five graduates. The attendance for the year was 720.

Call on the Racket Store for novelties in Chinaware and make your purchases before buying elsewhere. These bargains are being closed out at cost.

William England, the stone cutter, returned this week from Prescott, where he has been shaping stone for some of the fine buildings of that place.

Northern Arizona has a climate in summer to suit every health seeker and the tourist can find pleasure and also add good specimens to his store of curios by visiting the points of interest surrounding Flagstaff.

Mendenhall Brothers disposed of their interest in Crook and Evergreen groups, situated in Crook canyon, last Thursday, to Mr. C. P. Collins. Walter Mendenhall left for a visit to Colorado this week, where he goes on mining business.—Prospect.

Governor Murphy has appointed the commissioners to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition as follows: First district, Judge W. H. Barnes, Tucson; Second district, Charles E. Taylor, Globe; Third district, A. E. Dalton, Phoenix; Fourth district, W. C. Bashford, Prescott.

Mr. McKenzie and family have moved into town from Hibbard station, where Mr. McKenzie has been agent and telegrapher for the Santa Fe. The station there has been closed and Mr. McKenzie has secured a position with the Arizona Lumber and Timber Company, and will be a resident of our city.

There is plenty of good camping places for the tourist who wishes to enjoy his or her summer outing in the San Francisco mountains. Flagstaff is the nearest supply point to scenic portions and is the most direct line by which the curio hunter can satisfy his desire for specimens and reach the Grand Canyon of the Colorado.

The rains of the past week will be a wonderful help to the ranchmen, stockmen and sheepmen of Northern Arizona. The hillsides to the west of Flagstaff are already beginning take a greenish cast and ere long the flowers that grow so profusely on the San Francisco mountain sides will be wafting their sweet scented perfume in the faces of the health seekers who choose this locality for their summer homes.

Typewriter papers in various weights at Timerhoff's.

Notices will soon be served on everyone to clean their back yards.

It keeps them well and makes them lay—Timerhoff's poultry powder.

Thomas Fitch, known to all Arizonans, is now practicing law in Honolulu.

Walter Beeson, came in from the west this morning, and will remain several weeks.

A. G. Brigham and wife and S. J. McDorgal, of Boston, were visitors here during the week.

A. C. Winkler, while loading logs at Cameron's camp, Wednesday, had his left ankle put out of joint.

D. M. Riordan, manager of the General Electric company, arrived in Phoenix Thursday and left for Prescott.

Agents wanted, ladies or men, to sell gilt-edge oil stocks. Queen Oil Co., 916 Market street, San Francisco, California.

Tourist are taking advantage of the pleasant weather and excellent roads to visit the many points of interest near Flagstaff.

The Racket Store is closing out its line of Chinaware and if you want anything in this line at a bargain call and see the stock.

Fred S. Breen, supervisor of the San Francisco Mountains forest reserve, returned from a thirty days' visit to his former home in Chicago. Tuesday.

Extensive repairs are contemplated on the Methodist church and a committee of ladies, members of that church, are soliciting contributions for that purpose.

On Sunday, May 19th, the subject of the sermon at 11 a. m. in the Methodist church will be "Heaven—Where is it and what is it?" In the evening, "Hell—Where is it and what is it?"

A general invitation is extended to the people of Flagstaff to be present at the discussion of these questions which ought to interest all.

John McCarty, the noted hunter and trapper, accompanied by his wife, arrived from Tucson Monday. Mr. McCarty intends making his home in Flagstaff. He represents a number of Zoological societies and museums of the east, and his time will be devoted to supplying these institutions with wild animals from the mountains and plains of Arizona.

The members of the G. A. R. of Flagstaff, have completed arrangements for the observance of Memorial Day. On Sunday evening, May 26, Rev. J. H. Henry will deliver a memorial sermon at the Presbyterian church. On Memorial Day, May 30, the parade and ceremonies will be held in accordance with the program printed elsewhere in this issue.

Treasurer George Hoxworth attached a band of sheep belonging to Jared Woodbridge Monday, and will offer the same for sale on Friday, May 24, the proceeds of the sale to be applied to the payment of the taxes which Mr. Woodbridge owes to the county of Coconino to the amount of $820. There are several other delinquent taxpayers on the roll which the treasurer intends taking legal proceedings against if they do not pay within the allotted time.

Several showers with one steady rain for six hours assures plenty of feed on the range.

D. M. Francis has returned from the Salt River valley, where he has been during the winter.

W. S. Riggs and wife, of Phoenix, are stopping here and will continue their stay for several weeks.

Joseph R. Lockett returned yesterday from Phoenix, where he has been spending the past three months.

Fire Insurance—The Arizona Central Bank represents a number of the largest American and English companies.

The Journal-Miner says: Rev. H. W. Peek has returned from Flagstaff. He speaks in high praise of the Mountain City.

The Imperial Steam Laundry of Albuquerque, is represented in Flagstaff by Geo. E. Palmer. Give him your laundry.

Remember that the Racket Store is going out of business and is selling Chinaware below cost in order to close out what it has on hand.

Dr. G. W. Vickers, territorial auditor, spent Thursday here. He is on his tour as territorial bank examiner, and left for the west yesterday.

For Sale—Hoosier grain drill, 6-inch hoe, in first-class condition. Price reasonable. Drill may be seen at my ranch, three miles north of town. W. H. Anderson.

The New Bank hotel has been re-furnished and is now open to the public. Mrs. F. T. McMillan is the new manager, and will for the present run the hotel on the European plan.

It makes no difference how cloudy the day or dark the night THE SUN still shines for all, and the price for a year's SUN light is only $2.00. Get your name on the subscription list.

When you write a letter to friends encourage them to spend their summer vacation in a locality where the remembrance of which will be a pleasure and not a regret. Flagstaff is the chosen starting point for the sight-seer.

Thomas C. Powell, of Providence, R. I., after a stay of several weeks at various points in the Territory, left for his eastern home on Tuesday. He is highly pleased with Arizona and has made some investments in mines of the territory.

Does your collar pinch your neck? If it does, it is not buttoned to a Keller Made Shirt. Order a sample set of three shirts from these popular shirt makers and know the comfort of a perfect fit. Keller's man will visit Flagstaff every sixty days.

On last Sunday night a very large audience assembled in the Methodist church to hear S. A. Thomson, D. D., superintendent of the Arizona mission, who preached a most excellent sermon and afterward administered holy communion to a large number of persons.

The Tucson Citizen warns the public against a man named Porter, alias Bradford, who is taking orders for magazines. The canvasser, the Citizen states, is headed for northern Arizona. A man named E. F. Kelsey writing from Bowie to the Citizen says he took orders there from almost every one in town, but not a single paper, book or magazine ever came.

Timerhoff's poultry powder cures chicken cholera.

Lost—An account book. Please return to J. W. Power.

For Sale—Large hotel range with large pressure boiler and fixtures. Apply at this office.

Ed. Greenlaw, the efficient superintendent of Greenlaw's mill and lumber camp, was in the city Thursday for a few hours.

Village school shoes for boys and girls. The best school shoe ever brought to Flagstaff are sold by the New York Store.

Robert B. Walton and wife returned to Flagstaff Friday of last week from Phoenix, and are domiciled in their cottage on the south side.

J. L. V. Thomas is at his Oak Creek home, and is still unable to be about. The injuries received last fall in falling from a ladder have effected his general health.

A gentleman who is returning from a trip around the world remarked while visiting THE SUN office that Flagstaff was one of the most orderly towns he was ever in.

Timerhoff, the druggist, has enclosed his anatomy in a brand new suit of clothes of elegant pattern and perfect fit. They are the handiwork of S. Barron, the artistic tailor.

The quarterly conference of the Methodist church was held on Monday evening presided over by Dr. Thomson. The reports indicating that all departments of the church are in a flourishing condition.

The coal mines of W. A. Clark, at Clarkville, near Gallup, have been indefinitely closed. A strike of the miners caused the action of the management. One hundred and fifty men were thrown out of employment.

Mr. Wray, of the Navajo mission, came into town on Thursday for supplies and started back on Friday morning. He states that the health of his wife has not improved much since she left Flagstaff a few weeks ago, but hopes that in time the change of altitude may prove a benefit.

For Rent—On July 1, 1901, brick building on the corner of Railroad avenue and Leroux street. Good frost-proof cellar 25x60 feet, store room 50x60 feet, second story 25x60 feet. Water and sewer connections. Best location in town. For particulars apply to Julius Aubineau, Flagstaff, Arizona.

A sort of wholesale cancellation of homestead entries is in progress in the land office now. The cases are those where entrymen have failed to submit their final proofs within the statutory time. A letter was received by the land officers to-day from the general land office advising them of the cancellation of the following entries: No. 647, A. J. W. Faust, of Flagstaff, in township 23 north, range 6 east; No. 691, John V. Kitter, Flagstaff, in township 19 north, range 6 east; No. 718, Robert Martens, Flagstaff, in township 22 north, range 8 east; No. 734, Jesse W. Dempsey, Concho, in township 9 north, range 26 east; No. 752, James Mitchell, Flagstaff, in township 21 north, range 7 east; No. 788, Chas. B. Montgomery, Gallup, New Mexico, in township 17 north, range 24 east.—Journal-Miner.